Conferences/Student Half Day

Report Cards go home on Friday

Unit 1 is complete, and students will receive their Quarter 1 Report Cards on Friday. The packet consists of letter grades, a Math Continuum and a Reading and Writing Continuum that show the skills each student has mastered, a Standards-Based Report Card, and detailed individual comments. Parent-Teacher Conferences will be held on Tuesday and Wednesday of next week.

Hello Grade 2 Parents!

Key Assignment Day for Unit 1 was on Saturday, and it was a great success! Grade 2 did an incredible job with their Key Assignment presentation. They worked very hard to plan, write, and practice the performance through the end of Unit 1, and their hard work paid off. Congratulations!

Students and parents were able to learn about Italy, China, and South Korea through their music, traditions, landmarks, clothing, games, and food! Everyone got to have some delicious kimbap, dumplings, and spaghetti Bolognese. The audience was able to try the Korean game gonggi, and learn more about their Chinese Zodiac animal! Thank you to everyone who helped prepare for the presentation, and thank you to everyone who came to watch and support the Grade 2 students!

Check the class blog later this week to find more pictures and some video of the Grade 2 Key Assignment presentation!
